Subject: Lifetime Income RFI

Underlying the fancy wording lies a serious threat to our freedom to choose for our retirement. I don't want to be forced to buy government bonds issued by a government going broke as ours is. I believe as an American I have a right to choose how I invest my money. Social Security - the greatest Ponzi scheme in history - has been robbed by profligate government spending. This RFI is clearly an opening shot toward confiscating private citizens wealth - even the little I have - to temporarily bail out an unintelligent set of politicians. I do not propose to stand for it! Fred Edwards Holland PA 18966
